Handloom Entrepreneur QP Code: TSC/Q7801 Version: 2.0

TP Name:	Questions:
Location:	Marks:
Batch:-	Duration of Exam:-
Candidate:-	Scored:
Candidate ID:	Date:

1. What is essential for verifying production viability in the textile industry?

a) Calculating employee turnover rates
b) Assessing machinery maintenance costs
c) Organizing charity events
d) Holding customer appreciation days

2. Which option is typically considered for raising capital in the textile MSME sector?

a) Donating to charity
b) Personal savings
c) Selling branded merchandise
d) Conducting online surveys

3. What method can be used to perform market analysis on textile products?

a) Conducting online surveys
b) Hosting public events
c) Organizing employee workshops
d) Printing flyers

4. How can employees be effectively motivated based on their performance in a textile MSME business

a) Issuing monetary and non monetary incentives
b) Hosting parties
c) Providing exotic vacations
d) Offering unlimited sick leave

5. What is the purpose of calculating profit and loss in a textile business?

a) To organize employee events
b) To track inventory levels
c) To analyze financial performance
d) To plan social media campaigns

6. Why is it important to check for the availability of proper techniques, tools, and methods for a production line in textile manufacturing?

a) To increase electricity consumption
b) To reduce production costs
c) To ensure quality and efficiency
d) To organize social events

DO NOT COPY

7. Which of the following tools is typically used to create various types of textile designs?

a) Screwdriver
b) CAD (Computer Aided Design) software
c) Hammer
d) Welding machine

8. Which method is most effective for identifying prospective customers for textile products?

a) Random sampling
b) Customer feedback
c) Market research and analysis
d) Social media trends

9. What is essential for the effective distribution of textile products?
a) Attractive packaging
b) Proper logistics channels
c) High pricing strategy
d) Limited market reach

10. Which action is essential for curbing identified hazards at the workplace?

a) Making arrangements to prevent/curb the hazards
b) Planning safety techniques for employees
c) Communicating safety plans to everyone
d) Attaching disciplinary rules with implementation

11. Which of the following is a key responsibility for ensuring health and safety in the textile workplace?

a) Complying with regulatory health and safety guidelines
b) Creating new safety devices for the production house
c) Designing new textile products
d) Marketing and selling textile products

12. One of your team members is physically disabled. What should be your ethical code of conduct towards that employee?

a) Distribute the work among the team with no partiality and equal distribution.
b) Show partiality toward that employee by denying him opportunities.
c) Ask the employee to leave the organisation as he is of no worth
d) Put your name on the work done by him to show him that he is disabled.

13. Your employer has asked you to create an idea for a working project that should be "out of the box." How can you be creative to give a productive result?

a) Consider only 1 option for all the problems in the way of your idea
b) Limit your idea to one point only
c) Overpressurize your brain and keep on working without breaks.
d) Brainstorm new ideas and don’t be afraid to ask for advice or feedback

DO NOT COPY